OXYTEC SOLUTIONS INC.

EMPLOYEE CODE OF CONDUCT

EFFECTIVE DATE: JUNE 2025

CODE OF CONDUCT AND DISCIPLINE

1.0 POLICY

Oxytec Solutions Inc considers the maintenance of discipline of vital importance in the effective promotion of a healthy and harmonious relationship not only among employees but also between the company, clients, allied sources, outsourced labor and the employees.

2.0 WORK RULES AND REGULATIONS

Oxytec Solutions Inc, as a company, installs medical gas pipeline, oxygen generators, nurse call systems, waste management equipment, and health solutions for medical centers and hospitals, would like to achieve these objectives, wherein each employee is expected to perform his duties to the best of his knowledge and ability to develop himself to his assigned task with all due diligence and to observe at all times safety measures as far as human foresight and diligence can provide.

Hence, the succeeding paragraphs delineate the working rules and regulations for the observance of all employees with their corresponding measures of discipline and penalties or any violation thereof. It is understood that penalties provided herein pertain only to the employment relationship of the company and the employee and without prejudice to other recourse available to the company under the existing laws of the country. All rules and regulations are observed in all geographical locations within the company's reach, including staff houses, site premises, project areas and company-sponsored activities.

ARTICLE I

3.0 APPLICABILITY

This Code of Conduct and Discipline shall apply to all employees of Oxytec Solutions Inc., regardless of employment classifications and status.

ARTICLE II

CLASSIFICATION OF BEHAVIOR

The penalty for each offense as provided in the following rules will apply whether said offense is light or serious:

CATEGORY	DISCIPLINARY ACTION	PRESCREPTIVE PERIOD
Minor	Counseling-Documented Verbal Warning	6 months
Major	Written Warning-Final Written Warning	12 months
Grave	Suspension	18 months
Severe	Termination

4.0 DEFINITION OF DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS

ACTION	DESCRIPTION
Counseling (C)	Employees are guided by expected behavior and given verbal advice
Documented Verbal Warning (DVW)	A formal record of verbal warning is placed in the employee's file
Written Warning (WW)	A formal notice issued to the employee, highlighting the offense and required corrective action.
Final Written Warning (FWW)	A last chance notice before harsher disciplinary action
Suspension (S)	Temporary removal from duty without pay for a specified period (3 to 15 days, depending on severity)
Termination (T)	Dismissal from employment due to repeated violations or a severe offense.

ARTICLE III

DUE PROCESS CLAUSE

- Due process must be observed. The employee shall be given five (5) days from receipt of the Request for Written Explanation to submit their response.

In cases where multiple acts constitute corrective actions the graver offense shall be imposed on the employee.

ARTICLE IV

SPECIFIC OFFENSES

The following schedule of offenses and penalties shall apply to all employees of the company.

I. OFFENSES RELATING TO WORK ATTITUDE

A. ATTENDANCE

An employee who does not report for work and has not duly filed a prior leave application must notify his immediate superior within at least two (2) hours before the scheduled shift. If he is not able to do so within the time allotted, he shall be considered absent.

1. Incurring non-consecutive Absence without Official Leave (AWOL) within a calendar year.

TOTAL AWOL DAYS	PENALTY
1 day	Documented Verbal Warning (DVW)
2 days	Written Warning (WW)
3 days	Final Written Warning (FWW)
4 days	Suspension -6 days without pay
5 days	Suspension-12 days without pay
6 days	Suspension-15 days without pay
More than six (6) days	Termination (T)

Note: AWOL is cumulative within a year

2. Incurring AWOL for seven (7) consecutive working days shall be considered as abandonment of work or voluntary resignation.

3. Incurring habitual unexcused tardiness per month. An employee who is repeatedly late without a valid reason within a calendar month shall face the following penalties:

OFFENSE COUNT (PER MONTH)	PENALTY
1 st Offense	Oral Reminder (O.R.)
2 nd Offense	Documented Verbal Warning (DVW)
3 rd Offense	Written Warning (WW)
4 th Offense	Final Written Warning (FWW)
5 th Offense	Suspension-1 day
6 th Offense	Suspension-3 days
More than six (6) offense	Suspension – 7 days (for each additional offense)

4. Incurring twenty-six (26) accumulated tardiness within a calendar year = T

Note 1: In addition to the above, each tardiness and absence will result in corresponding pay deductions.

Note 2: Tardiness is defined as showing up for work one or more minutes after the scheduled start time of an employee shift.

Note 3: The company provides a 7-minute grace period per day, which means that tardiness within this period will not count towards disciplinary action. However, all minutes of tardiness—whether within or beyond the grace period—will still be deducted from the employee's salary.

Note 4: Tardiness of at least sixty (60) minutes a day shall be considered as under time and shall be penalized accordingly.

Note 5: Aggregate Tardiness- If an employee exceeds 60 minutes of tardiness in a month, they will be given a memo

Note 6: Accumulated Tardiness- refers to 4 counts or more tardiness in a month.

Note 7: Unauthorized undertime
